

Good morning,

We have sang your praise this whole past year!

In 2018 your award of a Grant to Aiming for Acceptance, Families kept access to tele-therapy this whole year!

We presented our Learning Center project nation wide and gave you all credit for keeping us going.

Thank you again for Supporting us! You are Amazing

Working Together: Getting Results!

- We were able to virtually present at two conferences where the story of The Learning Center was told to audiences of community members and health care workers who are ready for system change
 - The above has allowed for new connections and resource sharing without you!

is wasn't it?

er for 2020 of which you .NK YOU as it was what could interact with each is still out there. And let the new technology.

which allowed for parents to ate and country to support and es get through their daily oth child and caregivers. This und at home with their loved
